Nile River Cruise & Classical Cairo for the Easter Festivities

VISITING: CAIRO, LUXOR, ESNA, KOMOMBO, ASWAN & ABU SIMBEL

Sunday 12th April (Easter Sunday): Meet the tour leader at the Malta International Airport at 2130hrs check in of your Air Malta direct flight to Cairo departing at 2340hrs.

Monday 13th April: Upon arrival, follow the Egyptian entry visa procedures (fee included), and re-check in for the internal flight to Luxor. Once in Luxor, join the local licensed English-speaking guide for a free excursion to the West Bank of Luxor to include the Valley of the Kings, the memorial temple of Hatshepsut Temple also known as the El Der El Bahari and the Two Colossi Memnon but not before a boxed breakfast. Later head towards Luxor's river cruise terminal for check-in onto your 5* Nile Cruise ship you will be calling home for the next few days. Lunch will be served on board followed by free time. Later re-join the group for your welcome onboard dinner before overnight.

Tuesday 14th April: After your onboard breakfast, join your fellow cruise mates for a visit to the East Bank of Luxor and specifically towards the Luxor and Karnak temples, some of the most important archaeological complexes in the whole of Egypt. Later head back towards your cruise for lunch all along whilst cruising along the majestic Nile river towards Edfu via the spectacular Esna river lock.

Wednesday 15th April: After your daily breakfast, visit the Edfu Temple by horse carriage, dedicated to Horus, the avenging son of Isis and Osiris. Later sail to Kom-Ombo in order for you to visit the temple dedicated to two gods, the local crocodile god Sobek and Haroeris, meaning Horus the Elder. Later sail towards Aswan.

Thursday 16th April: Today, join your tour leader for a visit to some of the most spectacular sites in Aswan including the Philae temple, the High dam and the Unfinished Obelisk and its adjacent granite quarries. You will also have the time to join one of the felucca rides on the river Nile to better experience this part of the Nile, where the river is wide, beautiful and languorous.

Friday 17th April: After your farewell breakfast and disembarkation, enjoy your free time in central Aswan or join the optional excursion to Abu Simbel by internal flights. Overlooking Lake Nasser, the great temple of Ramses II and the temple of Hathor, are amongst the most famous and spectacular monuments in Egypt. Here one can also marvel at the modern marvel of engineering and sheer audacity, when in order for such temple complex to be saved from rising waters, it was moved to the current position on the banks of Lake Nasser. Later and after the return to Luxor from Abu Simbel, take the internal flight back to Cairo, Egypt's capital city. Upon arrival head towards your centrally located 4* Hotel for check-in and room accommodation. Later re-join the group for your optional excursion and visit the Khan El Khalili, the medieval style mall and the Old Bazaar in central Cairo. Dinner at leisure (a la carte options available from hotel and other nearby establishments), before overnight.

Saturday 18th April: Soon after breakfast, join your fellow group members for an optional day excursion to the Great Pyramids and Sphinx of Giza. A visit to the world-famous Egyptian Museum of Antiquities will also take place. Later you may want to visit the Giza Pyramids for the spectacular sound and light show before your overnight.

Sunday 19th April: After breakfast, join your local English-speaking guide for another optional excursion to the Royal necropolis of Sakkara where the world famous stepped pyramid of Pharaoh Zoser is found and then continue your journey towards Memphis.

Monday 20th April: After check out and boxed breakfast head towards Cairo's International airport for your flight back to Malta departing at 0315hrs.
