VISITING: NIS, BELGRADE AND RESAVA

Friday 10th April (Good Friday): Meet the tour leader at the Malta International Airport at 0400hrs for check in of your Direct Ryan Air flight to Nis in Serbia departing at 0600hrs. Upon arrival, your private coach will head towards your centrally located hotel for immediate check-in and buffet breakfast. Later re-join your tour leader and your local English-speaking licensed guide for a full day excursion to the city of Nis. Nis, being the third largest metropolitan city in Serbia, is a lively city full of curious contracts and most famous for being the birthplace of the Roman Emperor Constantine the Great. During your day visit the Skull Tower (entrance included), the archaeological park of Mediana and the impressive fortress on the bank of Nisava River to the west of the city. Later head to the cobblestoned Tinkers' Alley, full of fast-paced bars and cafes. Here you can also have dinner (extra) in one of the many restaurants that the local guide will advise you about depending on your preference for the night before your return to the hotel for your overnight.

Saturday 11th April: After your daily buffet breakfast, join your fellow group members and head north on a full day excursion to the capital city of Serbia: Belgrade. Well known for its various architectural styles, dynamic history and fantastic views of one of the biggest river confluences in the whole of Europe. Start by visiting the must visit Museum of Yugoslav History (entrance included), that houses an invaluable collection representing the fascinating and tumultuous history of Yugoslavia. Later head towards the former European and World Champions stadium of FC Red Star before reaching the World's second biggest Orthodox Church. Your day will not be completed before a panoramic tour of numerous other sites and attractions in Belgrade before ample free time in a massive shopping complex full with the world's most renowned brands at fantastic prices.

Sunday 12th April (Easter Sunday): Today, head towards Despotovav, on the plateau vertically descending towards the small Resava river where you will visit the Manasija Monastery, the former fortified hideout for artists and writers. Then continue your way towards the eight-million-year-old Resava Cave (entrance included) with its impressive underground halls and natural formations. Complete today's exploration by a visit to Lisine and its famous and beautiful waterfall. Later head back to Nis for some free time for individual activities or yet more shopping at the central Forum Shopping Complex

Monday 13th April: After breakfast and checkout, head towards Nis Airport for your flight back to Malta departing at 1140hrs.
